

RESOLUTION NO. 2000-181

A RESOLUTION OF THE LODI CITY COUNCIL APPROVING
ADDITION OF ONE COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT OFFICER I/II
AND FURTHER APPROVING PURCHASE OF ASSOCIATED
OFFICE AND ANCILLARY EQUIPMENT

WHEREAS, the Community Development Department's Community Improvement Division currently administers a code enforcement program which deals with complaints of substandard housing conditions, dangerous building conditions, and nuisance and blighted property conditions; and

WHEREAS, the code enforcement function also entails the enforcement of zoning regulations and other miscellaneous municipal code regulations such as noise regulations, encroachment regulations and abandoned and inoperable vehicle abatement regulations; and

WHEREAS, the Community Improvement Division's Code Enforcement function is currently staffed by the Community Improvement Manager, one Community Improvement Officer I (Code Enforcement Officer) and one Administrative Clerk II; and

WHEREAS, during a recent tour of Lodi's Eastside and subsequent Town Hall meeting, the Council and City Manager have recognized a need for additional staffing for the code enforcement function; and

WHEREAS, funds in the approximate amount of $56,908.00 need to be allocated from the Contingency Fund.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Lodi City Council hereby approves the addition of one Community Improvement Officer I/II and further authorizes funds be allocated from the Contingency Fund in the amount of $56,908.00 for salary and startup costs for this position.

Dated: October 4, 2000
